WILLIAM ROSCOE THAYER'S THEODORE ROOSEVELT

AN INTIMATE BIOGRAPHY

This life story of Theodore Roosevelt as told by a life-long friend who is also the greatest of contemporary biographers will give the reader a new understanding of one of the great master builders of American history and of the period in which he lived. Mr. Thayer's work on "The Life and Letters of John Hay" gave him a unique inside knowledge of the background of affairs before and during Roosevelt's presidency. This, combined with his close personal knowledge of the man himself, has enabled him to write with a sympathetic insight that illuminates Roosevelt's character and career as they have never been illuminated before.
